

Press Release

Will Bright shine at Newquay Surf 7's this weekend.

The first National Rugby Sevens Series, rolls into Newquay this weekend, with Redruths Player Coach Mark Bright hoping to captain Samurai International to victory. Bright has been the player of the series so far, leading Samurai to victories at both London and Bath. However they were narrowly beaten in the final in Manchester, by a very good British Army team.

This sets up a grand finale in Newquay on Saturday. Samurai currently head the series with the British Army team only 8 points behind them. Once again the series is wide open, with the British Army team full of confidence, as they have never lost a match at Newquay. Gates open at 9.00 with all games kicking off at 10.00.

Sky Sports will be covering the event, with a 90 minute highlights show, to be shown later in the Month on Sky Sports 3 and 4.

Spectator Tickets are available from Newquay Sports Centre. Newquay First Loyalty card holders will be able to purchase a Weekend Pass at a discounted price of £5.

Tournament Director Andy Hawken commented, We kick off on Friday with former Wasps and England player Phil Greening attending a Rugby Coaching Session with pupils from local schools, hosted by Newquay Tretherras School. We then have two great days of top Men's and Women's sevens rugby, A not to be missed event for all local rugby fans"

Editors;

Contact details;

Tournament Director Andy Hawken.

www.newquaysurf7s.co.uk

07939673620

newquaysurf7s@googlemail.com